8 Of the Most Powerful Free Marketing Methods That Have Been Proven To Create Multiple 6-Figure Earnings:

Writing Articles

Writing articles targeted to certain keywords, with the right anchor text and tags can create up to anywhere from $300 to $15,000 or more per article. That is why any savvy internet marketer student will learn how to write at least once of these each day for 90 days when they launch their internet marketing career!

Article Marketing is universal in that it can be used to promote absolutely any business, any product, and any service – anything online! What's more – it is residual too! That simply means that when you publish an article today – it is still making you money tomorrow, next week, next month, next year – and 5 years from now 'if' you know how to properly create articles!

What is truly amazing is how simple it is for anyone to become an article marketer. This is a marketing technique that can be mastered in as little as one single day!

There are several simple but critical 'Do's & Don'ts' when it comes to article marketing that many internet marketers do not know about – but which must be implemented if you wish to experience dramatic success & sales conversions.

Many 6 figure internet income earners write an average of 1 article per day simply because of the power articles have to create residual ongoing income.

Some articles generate several hundred dollars per year in income – while others can generate literally tens of thousands of dollars or more in non-stop cash coming in regardless of the business you are in.

The single biggest mistake that article marketers make has to do with the resource box that must be in every article. Correcting this single mistake alone can increase profits by as much as 763%.

Posting Videos

Using nothing more than a simple $50 web cam, a free online teleprompter, some hand picked images you can get from a special web site, and the 'built in' movie making program that comes with your computer (or which you can download for free) - you can create, post and publish videos which can be worth 6 figures per year once you create the special tags that need to be embedded with each video!

Many people don't know it – but video marketing is one of the simplest of the free marketing methods!

In addition, savvy internet marketers will take every article they want and create a matching video within just 15-30 minutes where they use their article as a script. You see, when you write an article – you have also done half the work for a video!

Most internet marketers also don't know that you can create fantastic videos simply by copying and pasting unlimited free images that are available right online into their movie program that comes with their computer.

Making movies with your computer is about as simple as learning to use a cell phone – but many people don't know that!

There is a secret formula for how to structure videos that few people know about – but many of the marketers that learn it often have multiple 6 figure incomes chasing them once they start to build up their arsenal of online videos.

Where do you publish videos? On sites like YouTube and dozens of others!

And, when you learn the secrets of 'tagging' your videos with certain keywords – you'll immediately begin to experience the cash creating power of video on the internet!

The average person can master the basics of video marketing in just a few days!

The critical thing to remember about video marketing is that dramatic success is contingent upon executing half a dozen extremely simple & effortless steps in the production of any online video.

Blogging

Becoming part of the fast paced community of blog sites allows you or any internet marketing beginner to create networks with people which can result in multiple streams of internet income for whatever you are doing online. Once you know how to participate in and even set up your own blogs - you can be adding thousands of dollars a month to your bottom line!

A blog is nothing more than an online journal where the conversation is principally 'one way' ...from you to the people reading your blog.

The search engines love blogs, and for that reason you will find many blog posts that end up being on the front pages of Google, Yahoo, MSN and other search engines – provided the authors of those blogs know how to operate them.

If you have ever kept a simple daily journal in your own life – then you already have what it takes to blog online. And, it requires no more than the intelligence of an average pimply faced teenager to master the art of blogging on the internet!

There are half a dozen secrets to making money with blogs which escape the majority of internet marketers ...especially the new ones!

It has been said that if you are online – you must have a blog. While that is not a mandatory thing – blogs can make you obscene amounts of income.

Interestingly, there is no subject, or product, or service, or business under the sun that can't benefit with a blog!

The learning curve required to master blogging is about a week – give or take a few days.

There is however, one major mistake that people make when doing a blog that has to do with time and date. Eliminating this radically huge mistake can result in double, triple; even quadruple the success of any online blog on any subject!

Press Releases

Without question, the best way to launch any business is by selecting the right press release sites and then creating press releases, embedding them with the right tags, and then posting them in strategic places online. Many businesses and people use press releases to continually make extra income on a regular basis each month!
